Anita Anderson

Vote For Council

Anita Anderson has been a homeowner in The Town of Capitol Heights since 1990. She attended Florida A&M University and is completing her education in Business Administration at Strayer College. She is currently employed with the Department of Homeland Security and was the first to hold the position of PTA President at William Hall Elementary. She is most proud to be a mother to three adult children and a grandmother to four. Anita is deeply passionate about the seniors and the youth in the community. She would like to see facilities in the Town that can nurture, protect, and resource the shoulders we stand on (our seniors) and the futures of tomorrow (our youth).

Amanda Anderson

Vote For Council

Amanda Anderson is a proud resident of Capitol Heights with vast experience in leadership and community engagement. Currently working in a high-level administrative role for the Bishop of Washington, she holds advanced knowledge in efficient administrative practices, project management, and technology advancement. She also holds a B.A. in Leadership and Administration from Lee University. Amanda has served the Town by being a vital member in chartering the first Town of Capitol Heights Toastmasters Club and served as Treasurer. She also served as the Secretary of the Capitol Heights Economic Development Committee and provided Executive Assistant services to former Mayor Shawn Maldon. Amanda is passionate about moving the town forward in economic development (particularly in healthy food access, neighborhood improvements, and attracting new businesses). She recognizes the value of REAL community engagement through the power of innovative communication platforms that will increase resident participation.

Faith T. Ford

Vote For Council

Faith T. Ford is a 17-year resident of the Town of Capitol Heights. She is a virtuous, proud, and dedicated family woman. Above all, she values her relationship with God. When opportunity presents itself, she aims to serve where needed. She realizes it is TIME FOR CHANGE in the Town of Capitol Heights and to move the Town FORWARD. Her passion is to advocate on the behalf of Town residents, businesses, and non-profit organizations and to help move the Town toward a more community-centered Town that educates residents, fortifies families, empowers youth, cares for senior citizens, promotes businesses and non-profit organizations: a community where everyone can be proud to LIVE!

James C. Brown

Vote For Council

James C. Brown is a native of Washington, DC and a 19-year resident of Capitol Heights. He is a graduate of Howard University (BA) and University of Maryland Global Campus (MBA). He has worked for over a decade as a project manager for a major defense contractor. James' passion for community growth and advancement is evident in his involvement in various civic organizations. He is currently serving as Vice President of The Town of Capitol Heights Civic Association, Treasurer of Toastmasters - Capitol Heights Chapter, and Member-At-Large (former Vice President) for the London Woods Community Association. James is running to make a difference with fresh ideas and a voice that listens to the concerns of its residents. He believes that growing the Town through economic development and the feeling of being in a safe community are cornerstones to moving Capitol Heights forward.

Kenneth D. Vinson

Vote For Council

Kenneth D. Vinson's vision, as a longtime resident, is to unify the new Mayor and Council Members together so that the Town's residents can truly benefit from all the opportunities that are available in Capitol Heights. Kenneth has served as Council Member in the past and was successful in supporting and delivering transportation the Town, as well as recreation and public safety programs to the residents of Capitol Heights. Mr. Vinson is excited for the opportunity to serve the community once again, and to help see that a bright and unified vision for the Town of Capitol Heights comes true.

Ronald L. Williams, Sr.

Vote For Council

Mr. Ronald L. Williams, Sr. moved to Capitol Heights in 1985. He currently works for The Department of Defense as a Military Personnel Management Specialist. Ronald is known as a pillar in the community and believes the residents of the town deserve an effective government that works cohesively together to bring about change in the areas of economic development, public safety, jobs and recreation for our youth, as well as a better equipped Public Works Department.
